

In so many cases, we don't need to use insurance until the most challenging times in our lives. You don't want to think about the worst that could occur, or why you might need auto extension coverage.

But you need to think about it. It can protect you and your family from financial hardship.

We believe good insurance is an act of care ... here's why.

"I could lose my business after being sued."

Greg's out-of-province accident could result in his family's bankruptcy

Greg is a successful business owner in Lloydminster who regularly does business on the Alberta side of the city. One day, while in Alberta, Greg was in a collision and the other driver was seriously hurt. A few weeks later, he was served with legal papers — he was being sued for more than the $200,000 in liability coverage provided by his basic plate insurance.

Unfortunately, Greg did not purchase additional SGI CANADA Auto Pak extension coverage, meaning he was financially responsible to make up the difference in the settlement out-of-pocket. He had worked hard for so many years to build a thriving and lucrative business. His financial success was now vulnerable due to legal fees and a hefty payout to the injured driver.

Greg and his family's future may be in jeopardy, with their savings and his business at risk, simply because he did not purchase additional Auto Pak coverage from his local SGI CANADA Broker.

Auto extension insurance can protect you and your family from financial hardship. Take care of yourself and your loved ones with an SGI CANADA Auto Pak.
